

Job Internship Program

FEGS Health and Human Services is currently recruiting for the next cycle of the Young Adult Internship Program (YAIP), which begins March 26, 2012. YAIP is a 14-week internship program for New Yorkers aged 16-24 who are not working and not in school.

YAIP includes a paid three-week orientation, followed by a paid 11-week internship. Interested candidates should bring eligibility documents, which include the following: Social Security card, proof of address (for example, a bill), birth certificate/valid U.S. passport/legal residency card, and a photo ID. Bronx residents are especially encouraged to apply. To find out more, call Daniel Nicholas at 718.742.3509 or e-mail him at dnicholas@fegs.org.