Keeping Children Safe and Families Together

The Children's Village, Pinkerton Mentoring Program is an 11-month mentoring program for young adults ages 17-22 who are transitioning out of foster care. With our Mentoring Program we aim to assist young adults with strengthening the transition toward independence and self-sufficiency.

- Participants receive a paid stipend
- Get connected to jobs, educational, vocational, and pro-social activities
- Organize community giveback projects
- Hot meals and transportation provided
